

GROWTH

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 5
DATE OF BROADCAST: May 19, 2008
DESCRIPTION: If you live in Summerlin, your commute home is snarled. Traffic is reduced to one lane of travel between Buffalo and Town Center, due to a re-paving project. Road crews say they are working around the clock to complete this project by June 1st.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 5
DATE OF BROADCAST: May 20, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Four years after a Vons grocery store pulled out, a neighborhood is finally getting another market. Today signs for "Buy Low Market" went up. It's a company with a string of grocery stores in California.

EDUCATION

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 4
DATE OF BROADCAST: May 20, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Teachers have taken a 3% increase in gaming tax off the table and instead looking to tourists and pushing a 3% hike in the room tax to better fund education. The proposal would raise about 180 million dollars.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 5
DATE OF BROADCAST: May 22, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Today could be the day that some agencies will see their budgets slashed by millions of dollars. There is an emergency meeting going on at The Grant Sawyer building right now to finalize a four and a half percent budget cut.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 5
DATE OF BROADCAST: May 23, 2008
DESCRIPTION: The Clark County School District is investigating an assigned project that sparked racial tensions, and even fighting, at Boulder City high School. A group of students drew a life sized picture of a man hanging from a noose as part of an English project.

PROGRAM TITLE: NEWS 3
TYPE: News 3 @ 11
DATE OF BROADCAST: May 24, 2008
DESCRIPTION: Andre Agassi wears many hats in the Las Vegas community and tonight he's adding another to his list. Agassi was awarded an honorary Doctorate from UNLV. It's a distinction he calls an honor.
